Canadian Clippings

At a meagre gathering of members of the Toronto Association of the Deaf, on September 30th, it was decided to carry on their bowling contest again for the season, and the first contest took place on October 9th, at the same alleys on Bond Street. This association is now affiliated with the "Frat."

Mr. William J. Ross had a close call from probable serious injury on October 2d. While riding his bicycle at Bay and Richmond Streets, he was run into by a motorist, but fortunately no one was hurt beyond a spill and a shake up. The motorist was to blame in this case.

Mr. Alex Buchan, Sr., his nephew, and Mr. William Wedderburn returned home from Walkerville, on October 2d, after working up there and in Detroit for several weeks past. They find the home clover is sweet enough.

Mr. James Tate and his parents have returned to their home here, after spending the summer at their cottage at Sutton West.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Terrell has been given the name of Audrey Cratchley Terrell.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sours, of Clinton, were down from October 2d to 5th, visiting their daughter, Mrs. Frank E. Doyle. A good bunch gathered at the Doyle home on October 4th, for a farewell party in their honor.

Mrs. Alice M. M. Wheeler had the pleasure of a visit from her sister, Mrs. Henrietta Roantree, of Hamilton, who spent two weeks with her lately.

Our Wednesday evening Epworth League has again resumed its weekly meetings for the coming season, and started on October 6th, with Mr. John T. Shilton again in charge.

Mr. Silas Baskerville was much pleased with a visit from his mother, who came down from Aurora, and spent October 3d with her son.

Miss Gladys Hardy enjoyed a delightful visit in Cleveland and other parts across the line lately.

Mr. Arthur Bowen was again down from Cookstown, on October 3d, to see his aged mother, who is still lingering between this life and the life to come.

Miss Frederica A. Wheeler has returned home after a fortnight's delightful visit to New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia. In the last named city, she attended the fiftieth anniversary Conference of the Library Association of America.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie E. Gray have moved their household goods here from St. Thomas and intend to stay for good.

Sunday, October 3d, was Rally Day at our church, and Misses W. R. Watt, Chas. A. Elliott, J. T. Shilton, J. R. Byrne and Mrs. Byrne gave short and convincing addresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Harris entertained a jolly bunch of friends at their home on St. Patrick Street, on Thursday evening, September 30th, at which all had a lovely time. One of the guests was Mr. William Baillie, of St. Johns, N. B. A couple of belated wedding gifts were received by Mrs. Harris, one being from Miss Avis Kerr, of Helmsstead.

Mrs. J. Grooms, of Nananee, is at the home of her son, Harry E. Grooms, keeping house during the convalescing period of her daughter-in-law.

Master Bobby Golds has returned to his home in Kitchener, after a very pleasant sojourn with his sister, Mrs. Frank E. Harris, for over a month.

The family of Harry E. Grooms will be well informed on the doings of the deaf for the next twelve months, for they have subscribed for the bright newsy JOURNAL, as will also be Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Shepherd.

There was a delightful gathering of the deaf at 287 Durie Street, on Saturday evening, October 2d, when Mrs. Walter Bell and Miss Pearl Hermon entertained them to a little luncheon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Patterson, of Montreal.

Mrs. Joshua Lloyd, of Brantford, has returned home, after a few weeks, stay with her daughter, Mrs. Ellsworth Bowman.

It should be remembered that Mr. Howard J. Lloyd, of Brantford, gave one of the finest sermons at our church, on September 12th, that has been rendered by an outside entertainer, when he gave a valuable talk on how the various parts or organs of the human body tend to elevate or lower the path to our future happiness and to the realm of our Saviour.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Forrester have named their little son, John David Forrester, a leaf from the Biblical ages.

Jesse Batstone, of Hamilton, was again exuding his summer smile in our midst over the week-end of October 2d.

At the regular monthly meeting of the "Frat.", held on October 2d, it was decided to rent new quarters in the I. O. O. F. Temple, at Bay and Richmond Streets, commencing on January next. This Temple was often visited by the deaf while the late Supt. R. Mathison had his office there when he was appointed Supreme Secretary of the Independent Order of Forresters of Canada, after resigning his post at the Belleville School over twenty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mason entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. N. A. McGillivray to tea on October 3d, and afterwards a little crowd gathered to enjoy the evening with "Grandpa" and "Grandma" Mason. No wonder they were all smiling.

PONTIAC, MICH., PICKUPS.

Master Ernest Hardenberg and his sister, Florence, returned to the Flint School on September 11st. Their father, along with Mr. L. D. Brown, of Rochester, and Mr. Albert Siess, accompanied them in Mr. Siess's car.

Mrs. Frank Hardenberg was much pleased with a surprise call from a cousin of hers lately, who came all the way from Simcoe, Ont. She then left to visit her married son in Detroit. These two cousins were bosom chums in the days of their youth.

A grand reunion of the Hardenberg family was held on September 26th, at the home of Claude Hardenberg at Metamora, Mich., and all enjoyed a pot-luck dinner. The whole Hardenberg family of this city were present.

On September 18th, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hardenberg and daughter, Miss Eva, went out to visit Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Brown at Rochester, and were later joined by Mr. and Mrs. John Ulrich and Mr. and Mrs. James from Detroit, and all had barrels of fun together.

The Hardenbergs had as Labor Day visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Cas. Sadows and Mr. and Mrs. William Riberdy, of Detroit, and it was quite a jolly gathering of former graduates of the Belleville School.

FORT QU'APPELLE FACTS.

Mr. Noah Labelle, in renewing his subscription to the JOURNAL, does not hesitate in saying he is more than satisfied with this newsy paper.

Mrs. J. R. Cook, of the teaching staff of the Winnipeg School, in company with her sister, Miss McPhail, made a tour of Saskatchewan in the former's car during their holidays, and dropped in to see Mrs. Noah Labelle, Mr. and Mrs. Bretham and Mrs. Neil Calder, (nee Miss Jessie Brown of Mount Forest, Ont.) Mr. N. Labelle was absent in the East when these visitors called.

Mr. Maxime Labelle, younger brother of Noah and the late Alexander Labelle, who left Winnipeg a year ago, is now doing very well at the Ford works in Detroit, and pulling down good wages.

Mr. Noah Labelle arrived back safely on August 18th, from a two months' trip through Michigan, Manitoba, and Eastern Canada, calling at Winnipeg, Escanabe, Mich. Windsor, Detroit, Toronto, Belleville, Ottawa, Montreal, and other places in Russell County, where he formerly lived. The trip was most beneficial to him, and he had the pleasure of attending both the Winnipeg and Windsor Conventions of the Deaf.

Mr. Alex. McLaren, of Smith

Falls, Ont., is now working in these parts, having come up with the harvesters' excursions on August 19th, last.

GENERAL GLEANINGS

The jury, investigating the death of Mr. Thomas Johnson, the deaf man killed on the railway at Belgrave on September 16th, returned a verdict of accidental death.

Shortly after their return from their honeymoon, Mr. John King, of Montreal, was obliged to go to the hospital for an operation for appendicitis. The operation was successful.

Miss Nellie Patrick, of Lindsay, was a guest of her chum, Miss Sylvia Caswell, at Niagara Falls, a short time ago, and had a delightful time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Brown, of Rochester, Mich., and Mr. Albert Siess, of Pontiac, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Riberdy on September 26th, and in the meantime Mr. Siess took the whole party and Miss Helen A. Middleton in his car for a long delightful ride all around the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stemplowsky, of Detroit, have found the JOURNAL such an interesting paper that they gladly sent the writer their subscription for that newsy weekly visitor. The latter is a former Canadian, being Miss Olive Johnson, of Sarnia, before her marriage.

It has just leaked out that Mr. Gordon Leggett and Miss Bella White, of Arnprior, were married some time ago, but we have not had particulars yet. Both principals are graduates of the Belleville School.

Mr. Johnson, who is living with his daughter, Mrs. Paul Stemplowsky, of Detroit, has been away on a visit to relatives in Goderich and other parts lately for over a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Cas. Sadows and Mr. and Mrs. William Riberdy, of Detroit, recently motored out to Ann Arbor, Mich., where they enjoyed a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, who have a beautiful home in that city of educational learning.

We understand that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Middleton, of Horning Mills, motored to Cookstown on October 3d, and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Averall.

Many of our friends will read with interest the fact that our old friend, Mr. Harmadus Forgette, of Casselman, is doing very well in the fruit-vending trade.

When at Belleville School years ago, he took up shoemaking as a calling, but gave it up ten years ago, and went into garden work, of which he made a success. He has two daughters and one son. The eldest daughter is a trained nurse and the other a school teacher, and the son works in Detroit. Harmadus' deaf brother, Joseph, is a barber in the Ottawa Hospital and doing fine. Their deaf sister is married and living near Ottawa.

Our old friend, Mr. Rosa Benoit, of Chrysler, Ont., is doing well and is still an old bachelor.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sours, of Clinton, visited a sister of the later in Stratford, on September 19th, and while there ran into Mr. and Mrs. William Quinlan, with whom they had a nice chat.

Mrs. Robert Hoy, of Avonton, has returned from her visit to her daughter in Flint, Mich., where she had a very good time.

Miss Doris Warren and her parents, lately of Toronto, are now living at St. Agathe, Que., some forty miles distant from Montreal. Doris would sooner be back in Toronto, so we hear.

Miss Ada James, of the Belleville teaching staff, was called to her mother's bedside in St. Thomas recently. Her mother took a sudden relapse over anxiety for her son's safety in the cyclone-devastated area of Florida.

PITTSBURGH.

The officers for 1926-1927 elected at the recent reunion of the Western Pennsylvania Alumni Association were:—President, Cyril A. Painter; Vice-President, Harry Zahn; Recording Secretary, Peter R. Graves; Corresponding Secretary, Fred R. Connor; Treasurer, Walter E. Bosworth.

The need for it having been apparent of late years a new office, that of official reporter with pay, was created. Mr. C. A. Painter was given the "plum." Now we may look for a good fill-up in the unlimited space the school generously reserves for alumni news.

The address of President Samuel Rogalsky was one of the best delivered at such re-unions, winning him expressions of popular homage and approval. Of especial interest was that concerning the progress of the school. Attention was called to the many improvements effected during the past few years by authorization of the Board of Trustees whose up-to-date progressive spirit elicited complimentary remarks.

1. The name of our Alma Mater has been changed from the Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb to the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf.

2. The school has been transferred from the Bureau of Charities and the Department of Welfare, where we were classed with prisons, reformatories and institutions for feeble-minded children, to the Department of Public Instruction, where we are classed as a part of the educational system of the State.

3. For the first time in the history of our School, it is getting from the State the same amount of money for each pupil as the Mount Airy School gets.

4. Beginning in the Primary Department and through the Intermediate Department, a policy of thoroughness and systematic instruction, not previously done, is being carried out. The same policy has been introduced in the Grammar Department, and within a very few years, will result in a much higher standard of education for our School.

5. Instead of having the backward pupils spend so much time trying to learn reading and arithmetic, their time in class is divided, and a special department of rag rug weaving, chair caning and basketry has been established for them.

6. The campus has been lighted, modern lights have been put in the pupils' study rooms, and many other improvements have been made in the buildings.

7. An up-to-date motion picture machine has been purchased, and every two weeks an educational and entertaining program of pictures is given the pupils.

8. A campaign of publicity has been carried on, which has done much to educate the public about our School. A yearly public demonstration, which hundreds of people attend is given in the spring, usually in May.

9. Playground equipment worth about $1000.00, has been bought and is being installed.

10. Greater effort than ever before is being made by the School to help the graduates secure employment. An attempt is being made to get the local labor union to recognize the work of our industrial departments, and to give our graduates credit for the time they spend learning their trades in our School.

This taking to their duties in the proper spirit on the part of the Trustees augurs well for the future of the school. As there is room for improvement everywhere else under the sun there, of course, are still conditions to which remedial measures can be applied, but judging by the number of changes made for the better it would seem that the Trustees have done more than could reasonably be expected of them in the short space of two years. The school is fortunate to have a hustling superintendent in Mr. A. C. Manning, who leaves no stone unturned that the pupils might get the best possible results. This 100 per cent superintendent should make it a 100 per cent school in a few years.

President Wilson's address of welcome, Walter Bosworth's responses, reminiscences by Dr. Ide L. Kinney, from 1876 to 1886, Mrs. James McVernon, 1896 to 1916, and Mr. Marion Allen, 1916 to 1926, were among the features of the reunion in the speaking line.

The annual pilgrimage was made to Dr. William N. Burt's grave, September 5th. There were a service and prayer offered by Rev. F. C. Smielau, at the conclusion of which Mr. C. A. Painter put a beautiful memorial wreath over the grave. Three automobiles, owned by Fred Connor, George Blackhall and Mr. Fulton, brought the crowd to the cemetery from St. Stephens Episcopal Church, where Rev. Mr. Smielau had conducted services.

The Pittsburgh Silent Foot-ball team, managed by Harry Zahn, started the season, September 26th, with a defeat at the hands of the Soho Oakleaves on the latter's grounds. The score was 25 to 0. Due to dearth of material, the Silents' outlook is not rosy this year, but they can be depended upon to put up a strong front against heavier and more experienced opponents. Their schedule has not been given out yet, but it is understood a number of strong and well-known independent teams in and outside the city have been engaged. Charles McArthur, former Mt. Airy star, is the captain.

When a fellow has amassed a competence, or come into sudden and unexpected possession of a small fortune through inheritance or by touching Aladdin's Lamp, he would be a wise guy if he kept it secret.

That it does not pay to announce such good fortune from the house tops, was proved in the case of one of the local deaf men, whose name for obvious reasons is withheld. Before the news had traveled far, a black-mail letter, demanding $2,500, with threats of death, was received.

Nothing serious so far has happened. The police are making efforts to apprehend the black-mailers. Meanwhile 'uneasy lies the head that wears the crown.' Removal from the neighborhood alone can bring peace of mind.

John Rolshouse who, a year ago, suffered a paralytic stroke on the left side, seems to be gaining some strength, but is not yet allowed to exercise himself beyond the wheel chair. His daughter, Theresa, is now a teacher at the Edgewood School.

With a new man, in the person of W. Luntz, added to its list of employees, Kaufmann's Warehouse now has five deaf men. The older ones are Chas. Fritzes, David Lyon, Paul Daxler and Albert Orth. Fred Farke, who resigned, is now connected with the May & Stern warehouse.

Peter Graves has joined the force of motorcycle delivery men of the Pittsburgh Gazette Times. This work night compelled him to resign as treasurer of N. F. S. D., No. 36. C. A. Painter has been appointed to serve out the term.

After shifting from one job to another here and finding not one satisfactory, George Phillips thought he would try Toledo and Akron. Finding the prospects no better, he returned and is at present in the employ of his uncle as a carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Tussing were made happy by the arrival of a new addition to their domicile October 2d. It's a boy.

Mrs. Merrill Wilson, accompanied by her children, has gone to Youngstown, Ohio, for a month's stay with her brother and family. She had been in ill health for some time, and we hope this needed rest puts her back in condition to resume her arduous household duties.

The Johnstown Division, No. 85, N. F. S. D., is going to have a masquerade party of its own this time. Heretofore it has passed up such entertainments, letting the one in the more populous Pittsburgh district suffice. They have come here in good flocks at each Halloween and hope that we do them a good turn by attending theirs, which takes place at Dale Fire Hall, a few doors from the residence of Chas. Friant, October 23d. They chose their date a week in advance of Halloween, in order not to conflict with ours.

Who said the radio is of no benefit to the deaf? John Hasson's father, a leading citizen of Windber, Pa., died October 25th. John's whereabouts being unknown, relatives made inquiries of the Johnstown deaf, and being informed that he was last known to be at Akron, they applied at the Johnstown radio broadcasting station. The message, with descriptions of him, was sent to Akron, where with the aid of the deaf he was located and notified. The news reached him in time to attend the funeral. He was on the point of leaving for Detroit, having failed to get the situation at Akron he has looking for.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Lipman, of Osceola Mills, Pa., observed their fifth wedding anniversary on October 10th, by inviting friends of nearby towns to a party. They received many beautiful gifts. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brookband, of Juniata; Miss Mary Henderson, of Tyrone, and Mrs. A. Richman, of Altoona. Mrs. Lipman, who was Esther Buckhantz before her marriage, hails from Iowa.

October 3d, Mr. Ernest Brookband was given a surprise birthday dinner at the home of Miss Mary Henderson, of Tyrone. Besides the hosts, the thoughtful souls, who made Ernest happy with the dinner and gifts, were Mr. and Mrs. Roland M. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Friant, of Johnstown, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Richman, of Altoona, and Ernest's better half.

The Altoona branch, P. S. A. D., which, at the behest of President Smielau, was organized nearly a year ago, is beginning to show signs of progress. Monthly meetings on the second Saturdays are held at the homes of the deaf in rotation.

October 10th, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Butterbaugh, of Altoona, attended the funeral services of the latter's brother, who was killed in a mine accident. Among the surviving children, of whom there are ten, is a son, Clair, who attends the Mt. Airy School.

Mr. and Mrs. Butterbaugh are planning to visit the latter's relatives in North Carolina next month.

Mr. and Mrs. George Curtin have moved back to Altoona from Hazelton. At present George is working as ad man on the Altoona Tribune, in place of a man on sick leave. He has hopes of being retained by the paper.

The conductor of this column is still in coop with ailing dogs. During the long imprisonment, four doctors have called upon him. Only one of them will get paid! Those who called for other than professional reasons were an old Pittsburgh friend, now of Santa Ana, California, a nephew of San Bernardino, California, and a brother of this city. The two California doctors visited hospitals on the line as far as New York. Neither had any connection with the other, making the trip separately. Both are hospital doctors though.

FRANCIS M. HOLLIDAY.

THE FUTURE

What may we take into the vast Forever? That marble door Admits no fruit of all our long endeavor, No frame-wreathed crown we wore, No garnered lore.

What can we bear beyond the unknown portal?

No gold, no gains

Of all our toiling: in the life immortal

No boarded wealth remains,

Nor gilds, nor stains.

Naked from out that far abyss behind us

We entered here:

No word came with our coming to remind us

What wondrous world was near,

No hope, no fear.

Into the silent, starless night before us,

Naked we glide:

No hand has mapped the constellations o'er us.

No comrade at our side,

No chart, no guide.

Yet fearless toward that midnight, black and hollow,

Our footsteps fare;

The beckoning of a Father's hand we follow—

His love alone is there,

No curse, no care.

GALLAUDET COLLEGE
WASHINGTON D. C.

DEAR MR. MOORE: Mrs. Hall and I want to thank the N. A. D. through you for the beautiful flowers, sent us on the last day of your meeting here, in appreciation of the use of our chapel and grounds.

It was, of course, really a great pleasure to have so many old and new friends here with us, and we were only too glad to have them come out to Kendall Green.

Yours truly,
PERCIVAL HALL.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Adopted unanimously by the members of the Ephphatha Episcopal Mission for the Deaf at a special meeting on the 10th of October, 1926. Located at St. John's P. E. Church.

WHEREAS, In the order of His Divine Providence, God has seen fit to remove our beloved missionary, Rev. Clarence W. Charles, from our midst by the hand of death and our hearts have been deeply moved thereby; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in his untimely departure we have lost one of nature's noblemen, a generous friend, a genial companion, a man of true and honest purpose, of pure mind, of sound judgment, prompt in action, faithful in matters of trust, an earnest Christian worker, and an ardent lover of his creed and his fellow-man.

Resolved, That we treasure the memory of his unswerving Christian life, his wise counsels, his faithful warnings and his unflinching zeal for the cause of Christ. Be it further

Resolved, That from the manner of his life among us, and from the positive character of his Christian experience and testimony shown when he preached the last time, we are fully persuaded that our loss is his eternal gain and that while we are mourning on earth he is rejoicing in his heavenly reward. Be it further

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the widow and children who have been called to part with their chief earthly counselor and support, and that we earnestly beseech the Father in Heaven to grant them the consolation they so much need and which He alone can give. Be it also

Resolved, That a copy of those resolutions (suitably engrossed) be given to the family of the deceased that they also be published in the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Silent Worker, Ohio Chronicle, Mich. Mirror, and other appropriate publications and recorded on the minutes of our mission.

"He's true to God who's true to man;
Whenever wrong is done
To the humblest and the weakest
'Neath the all-beholding sun
That wrong is also done to us,
And they are slaves most base,
Whose love of right is for themselves,
And not for all the race."

Notice to Correspondents.

A vast amount of trouble—and incidentally considerable expense in postage and stationery—would be avoided if writers would observe some of the rules laid down for the guidance of those sending in letters of news.

Very often we are obliged to omit otherwise good news letters, because the party sending these letters did not give his or her name and address. The name and address would not be published unless the writer demanded it. But the editor must know who sends the news letter, to prove that it is genuine or not fake news. Anonymous communications are promptly thrown into the waste-paper basket.

Another word of caution to correspondents concerns legibility. Careless scribbling of names and dates, leads to untold disappointment. The compositor spends much time in trying to decipher them. The proofreader also wastes time and is very often uncertain of the proper spelling of a name. It may be printed wrong, which entails disappointment by the writer, disgust on the part of the individual whose name has been misspelt, and regret by the newspaper that wrongly printed it.

A very important rule to remember, when writing for publication, is to write only on one side of the sheet of paper. Using both sides always results in delay. The compositors often overlook parts of an article, if the sheet be penciled on both sides. Especially is the foregoing sentence true, if the first side written upon concludes a sentence. Also, when in a hurry, it is desirable to divide "news letters," so that each compositor gets a small portion to put into type. Finally, very often a busy editor will throw an article, written on both sides of the sheet, either into the waste-basket or aside for later consideration.

To make sure your letter will be printed: Sign your name and address; write all names plainly—not in an undecipherable scribble; and write only one side of the sheet of paper.

Miss Mary E. Griffin, teacher in the Colorado school and for the last five years matron there has retired. She was the first teacher appointed by Dr. W. K. Argo when he took charge of the Colorado School as superintendent, going to the Colorado School from Fairbault, where she has taught for several years. She was a most successful and capable teacher and matron, and well deserved the warm commendation given her in a resolution of the Board adopted on her retirement.—Kentucky Deaf-Mute.

Gallaudet College

Sunday evening, October 10th, the Class of '28 took charge of the services by holding a Sunday School Concert, which was a success from every standpoint. Mr. C. Shaw opened the program with a prayer. Miss Alice McVan gave a short talk, entitled "High Ideals," which subject was well treated by this brilliant Junior. Then followed an idyllic rendition of "A Rendezvous With Life," by Miss Marie Parker. The next feature on the program was a lecture, "Perseverance," by Mr. William Landry, after which Mr. Peter Stewart appropriately recited "Columbus." Dr. Charles Ely closed the services with a prayer. It was arranged upon to give the money collected for the occasion to Red Cross Florida relief fund.

Amid wild confusion and cheering—and groans, plenty of them—the annual stunt of the supporters of the losing World Series club pulling the more fortunate baseball fans around Kendall Green on the ancient haywagon was staged Tuesday noon, October 12. At 12:50 p.m., sharp, the students (upper classmen only) gathered in front of the antiquated gymnasium, the St. Louis fans gleefully rampant atop the vehicle. When the St. Louis bunched was "good and ready," the disgruntled backers of the Yankees started off on the long circuit past Faculty Row, Fowler Hall and the Kendall School buildings and back to the gymnasium. A Rose, '27, was the most demented of the St. Louis fans, having won approximately twenty-one dollars besides this careening haywagon ride. The co-eds howled when with pleasant surprise they beheld Professor V. O. Skyberg patiently tugging at the side of the wagon, just as he did last year. We all hope he will have better luck next year.

The World Series "rumpus" on Kendall Green did not end when the haywagon classic was run off. As a result of a wager laid with a shrewd pair of Seniors, Birney Wright and Charles Killian, by two Sophomores, David Peikoff and Owen Study, the Sophomore backers of the vanquished Yankees has to form a crude horse with the aid of a horse's-head mask and a saddle pilfered from the College farm and to gallop twice around College Hall and Fowler Hall with each of the Seniors astride the human equus in his turn. The students turned out on the campus in full force to review this side-splitting cavalry parade.

The Gallaudet College Literary Society held its first regular meeting for this scholastic year Friday night, October 15th, in Chapel Hall. The program was as follows:

Lecture—"What Time Is It?" Dr. Percival Hall.

Debate—Resolved That intercollegiate football does not promote the best interests of college life.

Affirmative—Messrs. Collins, '28 and Hurovitz, '30. Negative—Messrs. W. Johnson, '28, and Joselow, '30.

Dialogue—"Hodge Podge," Messrs. Flood, '28 and Cone, P. C.

Declaration—"October" Mr. Hiken, '29.

Critic Mr. Krug, '27.

As Mr. Krug, '27, said Dr. Hall's entrancing lecture saved the day for the Literary Society. They mystifying text he chose was in due time explained as the most common questions asked of each other by the people of today, nearly as well-known as "How are you?" After this introduction, Dr. Hall proceeded to sum up the evolution of our timekeepers. He also illustrated the adoption of the day as an unit of time in all parts of the world and proceeded to explain how we came to divide the day into hours and seconds. Dr. Hall was given a rousing vote of thanks for his talk, which was undoubtedly one of the best we have had in the past few days.

Owing to the fact that they were better prepared than the other side, the Negative side won the judges' decision.

For the past few weeks there has been an exciting Little World Series in progress on the West campus, between the St. Louis Cardinals and Pittsburgh Pirates, the only deviation from the real World Series being that it is Indoor Ball instead of baseball. So far, the Pirates have the bigger end of the score of two games to one.

GALLAUDET GOES DOWN FOR THE COUNT

Not much can be learned about Gallaudet's invasion of Schuykill College in Reading, Pennsylvania, except that being, utterly off form, the visitors were soundly beaten, the score being 50 to 7. The newspapers of Washington, D. C., did not carry complete reports of the game and the players are too tired to talk.

We gleaned, however, from the disconnected accounts of the Buff and Blue men, that they were surprisingly off form, as a result of adverse fortune on the way to Schuykill. The team missed their train in Philadelphia, and when they got to Reading at half-past one they ate a hurried meal, the game being at 2:30 p.m. They went out on the field, already beaten.

In the second quarter by dint of heavy line-smashing Byowk stumbled over the goal line for a touchdown Killian kicked goal.

Gallaudet's second touchdown was made by a brilliant dash of 75 yards by Captain Scarvie, left end, who took the ball from one of the Schuykill's ball-carriers.

Luckily, we shall have no game Saturday, October 23. A week of easy practice and another of hard work will put the Gallaudet players into fine fettle for their tilt with the, alas, powerful U. of Maryland gridders October 30th.

Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. Frank Johnson, of McMumville, Ore., who was taken to a hospital some time ago for treatment and was reported improved and returned home, was again taken sick while up on the street, at the above named town recently, and had to be taken back to a hospital. Her many friends in Portland were sorry to hear of her illness and hope she will come out well again soon.

The Progressive 500 games among the Portland Deaf started its season's games at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Linde on Thursday night, September 16th. Score winners were Mrs. Anthon Kautz, first prize on ladies' side, H. P. Nelson highest score on men's side. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Linde. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thierman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Nelson, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Linde. Next games will be played at Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooke's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Barthlow are the proud father and mother of a little daughter, which arrived at this home on Saturday, September 18th.

Mr. Wirth, who lost his beloved wife last summer in Portland, returned from Chicago, where he went soon after his wife died to be with his daughter. It is though, he may get his job back at the Western Cooperaage. He may live with his son here.

The S. F. L. Club will give a party at the Redmens Hall on October 16th. All deaf are welcome. Mrs. W. Lee, chairman.

Mr. Bud Hastings is still busy at remodeling his home, with a new furnace in and when completed it will be a swell home. Most of the work is done by himself, with the help of Mr. C. Litherland, who is an expert plasterer.

Few deaf in the Rose City pay rent, as they most all own homes, and many of them own a car.

Mr. J. A. Fisher has now got a steady job at a local lumber mill along with Mr. Fred S. Delaney.

Mrs. Chas. Lawrence, of Vancouver Wash., went to the hop fields during hop season along with other deaf ladies. They went to an Oregon hop yard.

Mr. John La Motte, who has lived with the Reichles for the past year, left recently to try his luck at Spokane, Wash. Mr. La Motte was a popular man among the Portland Deaf and is greatly missed.

Mr. O'Leary it is understood found a position last summer for Mr. Gusto Torgerson of St. Paul, Minn., during the latter's trip out West to hunt work. But as the job was ready for Mr. T. he got homesick and left suddenly. Mr. T. was well liked during his stay in Portland. But sorry Portland has nothing for strangers, on account of lack of industries to supply its population with work.

"500" party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Cooke, Thursday night, September 30th. Mrs. H. P. Nelson and Mr. Thierman carried off the prizes for highest score. Fine refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Reichle drove their son Ralph up to Cornwells, Ore., where the latter will attend the O. A. C. for the season. Ralph was sworn in and passed requirements. Their son Ralph gone, leaves the Reichles home quiet and lonely, as they always had a house full. But rumor has it that Mr. La Motte, a former boarder, may return to from Spokane.

Mr. Wayne Thierman, who sold his new home on Gladstone Avenue a year ago, after which he moved to apartments, got tired of paying rent, and bought a swell seven, room house out in the beautiful district called East Moreland. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kautz, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Linde and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Nelson called to see the new home, of the English type. During the same day, Mr. O. Van Eman called in his new Ford Roadster. All the above named motored to the Nelsons in the Lindes car. The Thurmans have a fine den, where President Mrs. Thurman can arrange her club business.

The Ladies of the S. F. L. Club held their monthly meeting on Saturday night, October 2d, and elected new officers for the next month as follows:

Mrs. Wayne Thurman, President; Mrs. George Kreidt, Vice-President; Mrs. Carlson, Secretary; Mrs. J. O. Reichle, Treasurer; Mrs. W. Lee, Assistant Treasurer; Miss Grace Perringer, Sergeant-at-Arms.

NEW JERSEY.

HUDSON COUNTY N. A. D. BRANCH.

The Fall and Winter activities were inaugurated last Saturday night at Odd Fellows' Hall, Bergen Square, Jersey City, N. J., when the Hudson County Branch of the National Association of the Deaf held a dance and reception.

The attendance, though fair, was not up to expectations of its promoters, because few from Newark attended, owing to the reason that the deaf organizations in that city were holding a meeting.

There were many New Yorkers present, also some from Brooklyn.

Many of them came in their cars. Parked outside the building where the affair was held, we counted seventeen, but were told that several had already departed, so you see that those owning cars appreciated the work accomplished in their interest to be allowed to drive cars in New Jersey the same as other people.

We have attended so many New Jersey social events in the past, to become quite familiar with many of deaf residents of New Jersey, and it was a pleasure to again mingle with these silent ones that evening. They seldom meet one another for months, then you can imagine their pleasure in meeting again.

Of course, there was music and dancing from beginning to end, but you can not lose sight of the joy of meeting friends again, whom you have not met for months.

The committee of arrangements of the affair were: Harry E. Dixon (Secretary), Ernest De Laura (Treasurer), Michael Marelo, Michael Grod, Thomas Kelly and Carl Droste.

The officers of the Hudson County Branch of the National Association of the Deaf are: George Brede, President; Jacob Herbst, Vice-President; Harry E. Dixon, Secretary; Ernst De Laura, Treasurer; Mrs. Jacob Herbst, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The proceeds, after all expenses have been paid, will be turned over to the committee having charge of the New Jersey Auto Fund.

There were four prizes—three in cash of $15, $10 and $5, and strange as it may seem, they were all won by hearing people.

Mr. Marcus L. Kenner was the announcer, having consented to serve in that capacity to help the management. Mr. Kenner is a strong supporter of the N. A. D., being Vice-President of the parent organization. He performed his duties in a creditable manner.

The affair terminated at midnight.

PATRICK FAULKNER DEAD.

Patrick Faulkner, 66, a deaf-mute, died suddenly Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the home of his daughter, No. 20 Mount Wood road.

Mr. Faulkner was born on Christmas Day, 1860, in Clarksburg. He was the son of James and Nancy Faulkner, both of whom preceded their son to the grave. His wife, Sofia Wagner Faulkner, passed away four years ago.

He was a member of the St. Matthew's Church and of the society of that congregation known as the Deaf-Mutes' Guild. He had lived in Wheeling for the past 45 years, 20 years of that time being spent in the employ of the old Wheeling Steel and Iron Company.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Albert Nickerson, at whose home he died, and a son, Charles, of Pittsburgh. The only other of the kinship who lives to mourn him is a brother, Peter, of Clarksburg.

—Wheeling Register, Oct. 8.

Funeral took place on the following Monday afternoon, after a private service at the deceased's home at 2 o'clock, and then a public service in St. Matthew's Church.

Rev. C. W. Syndor, of St. Luke's Church, Wheeling Island, and Assistant, J. C. Bremer, officiated.

Marshall Finishes Race Despite Doctor's Advice

What was perhaps one of the most agreeable surprise experiences by local road racing fans in connection with yesterday's Marathon, was the fact that Leslie Marshall, of East Port Chester, finished in twenty-seventh place, ahead of twelve other harriers, despite the fact that he had been ruled out of the race by the examining physicians.

Marshall, who is over fifty-years of age, had trained hard for the Port Chester National Marathon and was not to be stopped from running the race, even by being disqualified by the physicians who examined all the runners before the race. Shorn of his number, the East Port Chester runner took his place with the rest of the field at the starting point and, while not recognized officially, finished in twenty-seventh place.—Portchester News.

PHILADELPHIA

News items for this column should be sent to James Reider, 1538 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Yesterday, (October 16th), was Donation Day at the Home for Blind Aged and Infirm Deaf in Torresdale, the extreme north eastern part of this city; and, consequently, a good many visitors were drawn there during the day. Two large, comfortable busses conveyed two loads of visitors from All Souls' Church to the Home, and a good many more made the trip by trolley-car and on foot. Most of the visitors arrived around three o'clock and remained till evening, thus having had ample time to inspect the Home thoroughly. A surprise visitor was none other than Mr. John P. Walker, the retired superintendent of the New Jersey School for the Deaf and a former teacher of the Pennsylvania Institution. Mr. Walker found among the inmates of the Home a couple of his former pupils and it may be imagined that the greeting between the two was most hearty. The Rev. F. C. Smielau, President of the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf, of which the Home is a protege, was also there and virtually in charge of affairs at the Home during the day. He had come from his field of labor ostensibly to preside at the meeting of the Board of Managers of the Society, which had been called for at the Home on this day and occasion, and thus he proved doubly useful in the absence of President J. A. McIlvaine, Jr., of the Board of Trustees, who was prevented from being present.

The day proved profitably for the Home, judging from the number of Donations received. The newly revived Johnstown Local Branch sent blankets, a very welcome gift, and the Berks County Local Branch sent a generous supply of food stuffs. The local (Philadelphia) Branch collected money for the Home and other local visitors brought gifts of things needed in person. This is as far as we have heard at this writing, so the list may be far from complete.

Many of the visitors lingered at the Home till evening, a committee having thoughtfully provided eats, which were sold for the benefit of the charity. It was ten of the clock in the evening, when the large busses with their quotas of people returned to their starting place, leaving the home once more to its accustomed tranquility.

We regret to report a painful accident to Mrs. Howard E. Arnold, which happened on October the seventh at All Souls' Parish House. With a number of other ladies, she attended the sewing circle at the Parish House on that day and later assisted in preparing supper for the members of the circle. Coming down the stairs from the upper floor, she accidentally slipped and was precipitated five or six steps to the hard floor of the vestibule, suffering some internal injuries.

We are not prepared to state exactly what these injuries were, except that they were painful and more or less serious. She has been treated at a hospital.

Among outsiders, who attended the meeting of the Board of Managers at the Home last Saturday, besides Rev. Mr. Smielau, were A. M. Fashnestock, of Muncy, Pa., and E. C. Ritchie, of Reading.

Mr. H. E. Stevens amused the inmates and visitors at the home, by exhibiting a lot of pictures via screen and stereopticon.

Mrs. Ada McKeen, of Carlisle, Pa., sister of Mrs. H. E. Stevens, was one of the visitors at the home on Donation Day. Another visitor from a distance was Mrs. Mary Blair, of Steelton, Pa.

On Saturday, 16th, Rev. Warren M. Smaltz married Miss Muriel T. Gillmore to Mr. Louis B. Wenzel, of Plainfield, N. J., in Trenton, N. J.

Mr. Burns H. Crider, of Bellefonte, Pa., was another visitor to the Home on Saturday. Mr. Crider has been around the city about a month, putting in most of his time seeing the Sesqui.

Miss Grace Pearl, the youngest blind inmate of the Home at Torresdale, spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Lipsett's daughter in West Philadelphia.

Mr. Charles Partington can boast of still another grandchild, a boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Partington on September 10th last. The youngster is named John Charles Partington.

We doff our hat to Grand Sire Partington, but not for the last time.

At the behest of his wife's aged parents, the family of Mr. Joseph Lipsett is now living with them.

The Rev. O. J. Whildin, of Baltimore, Md., was a flying visitor here recently and attended the Gallaudet Club meeting.

Miss Jane McKee Campbell died quite suddenly of pneumonia at the home of her sister, Mrs. Noble, in Arizona. She had arrived there only a few days before to spend the winter.

She was born in Kent Ohio, April 11th, 1840. The family moved to Pennsylvania, and she attended school in Philadelphia. Later she moved to Indiana, and for the past forty years has lived with her sister and niece in Worthington near Columbus, Ohio.

FANWOOD.

On the afternoon of Saturday, October 2d, Nicholas Cairano, a former pupil here, entertained his friend, Cadet Lieutenant and Band Leader James Garrick with a motor ride in the former's automobile, racing through the several towns of New York State as far as Kingston, where they found a place to sleep for the night. Next day, they continued their trip toward Albany, N. Y., where they paid a visit to their old schoolmates. The latter showed them around that city. They returned to New York in a little more than seven hours.

Cadet William Kahn, a great fan, witnessed the first of the World Series baseball games between the Yankee team and the Cardinals team at the Yankee Stadium, Saturday, the 2d inst., as also did Cadet Corporal Milton Koplowitz on Sunday, the 3d. Milton recognized Jack Dempsey, the former World's Heavyweight Boxing Champion, while he conversed with Babe Ruth.

On Thursday morning, the 7th, Colonel Gardner selected the new officers of the Battalion—two captains, five lieutenants, two first sergeants, two color sergeants and one band corporal. The new officers are: Captains—David Retzker for Company A, and Herbert Carroll for Company B. Lieutenants—George Lynch, Perry Schwing, John Kostyk, William Kahn, and Isidor Feldman. First Sergeants—Hyman Rubenstein for Company A, and Louis Bayarsky for Company B. Color Sergeant—William Wyatt and Fred McLellan, Band Corporal—Allyn Manning.

For the first time since last June, the Fanwood Literary Association held its meeting on Thursday, the 7th of October, in the chapel. New officers were elected as follows:—

COUNSELOR
Isaac B. Gardner, M.A.
FOR PRESIDENT
Thomas Francis Fox, M.A., Litt. D.

Amelia E. Berry
Edward S. Burdick
Alice E. Judge
Fayetta P. Fox
Edmiston W. Iles, M.A.
Alice M. Teegarden

During the third week of September, every member of the Fanwood Athletic Association was filled with an enthusiasm and joy, when they acquired a new rugby football from this institution. They had great fun playing with it, and discovered that it was hard to catch it when hurled in the air.

On Monday, October 18th, Mr. Joseph Worzel, a Lexington basketball coach, made a brief visit to the printing office and gymnasium, and had a talk with Frank Lux, our Physical director, about the basketball schedule.

On the evening of Sunday, the 17th inst., Cadet Lieutenant and Band Leader James Garrick appointed seven cadets as probationers of the Protean Society. The appointments were made subject to Principal Gardner's approval. They include Cadet Captains David Retzker and Herbert Carroll; Lieutenants George Lynch, John Kostyk, William Kahn, Isadore Feldman and Perry Schwing.

The basketball tournament of F. A. A. (senior) was opened on Monday, the 11th of October, in the gymnasium. Principal Isaac B. Gardner was there, tossing the ball up for the opening of the basketball season. The first game was played between "Nick" and "Otto." The score being 30 to 25 in favor of "Nick," whose captain is Cadet Nicholas Giordana. The "Otto" team is under the captaincy of Cadet Band Sergeant Otto Johnson.

The 7th of this month, after dinner, the teachers and pupils were excused from the school and trades to witness the Erie Canal Centennial Celebration, which was an interesting and spectacular procession of decorated boats on the Hudson River. During the evening, there was an exhibition of fireworks.

On Columbus Day in the morning, the entire pupils were assembled in the chapel. They listened to talks by Principal Gardner and Dr. Fox, concerning the early life of Christopher Columbus, who discovered America. After adjournment they were given permission to go home, but most of them spent their afternoon at Times Square, where they went to see the movies. About twelve cadets saw the runners in competition of the second annual Marathon at Port Chester.

FANWOOD ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Fanwood Alumni Association held its regular meeting on Saturday, October 9th, 1926. The meeting was opened by the president, Dr. Fox, promptly at eight-thirty. There were fully one-hundred members present, which was most encouraging and cheerful and shows the popularity of the Association.

Miss M. L. Barragar's report as treasurer was also encouraging, in that the treasury shows an increase during the past year. Her work is greatly appreciated by the members.

Mr. F. Reiff was chosen to head the committee for the tenth-year celebration to commemorate the ten years that the association has been in existence, next June. Mrs. Kent and Bothner, Messrs. Rose and Baxter, were also asked to serve on this committee. Mr. Reiff, in accepting, outlined some of his plans in regard to the celebration.

Dr. Fox extended a greeting to thirteen new members from the graduating class of last summer and by request told of the work of the Fanwood School, that it was non-sectarian, and about several other things of interest to the deaf in general.

On the conclusion of the business meeting, Mr. Rose as chairman of the Social Committee took up the merry-making. All of the games played were interesting as well as amusing. In one game prizes were awarded to those who successfully carried a potato on a fork for about twenty-five feet and put it on a chair. Mrs. Sampson, a visitor in this city from Minneapolis was one winner and Mr. Reiff the other. The Social Committee and some volunteers then served coffee and cakes of various kinds.

At eleven o'clock the meeting broke up, the general opinion being that it had been one of the best meetings ever held and that we would gather again at the meeting to be held in January.

CLEVELAND.

Two more deaf men are working here as linotype operators on the Cleveland Press. They are Joe Allen, the former Goodyear Silents star, and a Miles from Buffalo.

The former wife of Frank McMullen, the Goodyear Silents star, is said to have left this city for her home in Mississippi.

"Silent Bob" Hogan, who came here from Akron last April, is drawing high wages in one of the largest publishing plants in town.

McMullen, Rosemund and Hogan—all Cleveland printers—have cars; Chevrolet touring, Essex coach and Chrysler coach, respectively, and are planning to attend the Denver convention next summer.

Mrs. Ione Dix Hogan, of Columbus, accompanied by her father, drove her Ford coupe to Toledo and Detroit. She is at present keeping house for her father in Columbus, he having recently retired after forty years' service with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

H. McCann has been working on the Beacon Journal, in Akron, since last April.

Billy Foster, formerly of Syracuse, is now working in Painesville, with his wife, (Flora Hall).

That distinguished Southerner, Percy Ligon, Grand Chairman of the 1921 Frat convention in Atlanta, is looking for a job here.

CLEVELANDER.

N. A. D. Photographs

It should not be misunderstood that the editorial in our recent issue anent the local addresses of those ordering photographs of the group of beauties, has anything to do with the official N. A. D. convention photographs, taken by Tenschert and Flack, 802 F Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Tenschert and Flack—designated official photographers by the Washington local committee—are slowly catching up with the orders, a few at a time. Complaints come in from Chicago and kindred places that "hurry up communications" to Tenschert and Flack are ignored. Photographs arrive at intervals without regard for the sequence of orders. The Washington local committee doubtlessly investigated the responsibility of all its concessionaires before signing contracts, so our readers may reasonably feel assured that those holding Tenschert and Flack receipts for money paid will, in God's own good time, receive their photographs.

CHICAGO.

John Cordano, of St. Joseph, Mich., sends in a copy of the Mid-Week Pictorial of August 26th, having on page 31, a splendid photograph of those 15 beauties I posed on the steps and terrace of the U.S. Treasury, during the N.A. D. convention in Washington last August. If any readers know of other papers or magazines which printed any of the half-dozen poses those young beauties smiled through, despite the 99 degree heat, I shall be much obliged for the information. Those girls look smart, clean, sweet and wholesome. In our N. A. D. campaign of "educating the public," one such picture in a leading magazine probably does more wide-spread good than several columns of "big word bunk."

The Chicago girls in the photo are Miss Molly Liss, Miss Geraldine Gibbons and Mrs. Meagher. Misses Elsie Kaiser and Marjorie Miles, from the suburb of Hammond, Ind., are also included. "There were other beauties from Chicago and elsewhere, who deserved to be included, but who did not happen to be in sight when the photographer popped up that hot afternoon."

The game between Chicago's strong Bowen High—which has been riding rough shod over other local high schools—and the Illinois State for the Deaf coming up from Jacksonville to play the Chicago team for the first time—is the talk of the town.

The game will be played in Soldiers' Field, the superb new stadium where the Eucharistic Congress was held last summer, and where the Army and Navy will contest in November. The band will probably accompany the team in the Olson busses; and several hundred local silents are expected to attend. I am trying to arrange for International Newsreel to film the spectacle.

"Big dates" follow thick and fast after that: Friday afternoon, November 5th, there will be a huge card party at Hartman's Furniture Exchange, in the loop, corner Wabash and Adams, admission fifty per person. Excellent prizes will be awarded for auction bridge, "500" and bunco. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Illinois Home for Aged Deaf. Both men and women are cordially invited.

The following evening sees the long-awaited 25th anniversary banquet of N. F. S. D. Division No. 1, in the splendid Auditorium Hotel, Michigan Boulevard at Van Buren. Plates must be reserved before November 2d, accompanied by $2 per. I, me, myself, in person—beware of spurious imitations—shall officiate as toastmaster, and promise a corking program of after-dinner stunts and speeches. Free feeds are awarded to the four surviving charter-members of No. 1, and their wives—Washington Barrow, Oscar Pearson, Ed DesRocher, and Frank Spears. The even 50 members of No. 1, who joined before the F. S. D. became the N. F. S. D., in 1907, are given one free ticket each. Their certificates are numbered up to 50, inclusive.

This will be the last time they will be seen in a large gathering together—for some of them are growing old. The Auditorium Hotel is famous for its meals, and the "side show" numbers will alone be worth the money.

Chairman Padden really should have charged $3 per plate for this affair—but Paddy is known as a wizard at giving full value at low cost—as those attending the May Silver Jubilee can testify. There is a strong movement under way to boost him into the office of Grand Trustee of the N. F. S. D., to be vacated by the Rev. George Frederick Flick, at Denver.

At this writing, the 13th, there are still a limited number of plates securable at $2 each, but they will not last long. Send me the reservations immediately, addressed to 5627 Indiana Avenue, Chicago.

"Is true! With my own eyes, I saw it! Yes, sir! Fact! There it was in the two Chicago Sunday papers, October 10th—each with a guaranteed circulation of over a million: 'Gallaudet, 7; St. Johns College, 6.' Hallelujah!

Wonder what became of Kreigh Ayers' advertised plans for a "big league football team of deaf-mutes." Latest dispatches are that Russell Moore is manager of an "Akron Silents," with five deaf players on the squad—the other fifteen or so men being hearing players. (P. S.—Jack Seipp, the former Gallaudet star, says he will listen to no more "hot-air promises by promising promoters in Akron.")

The Silent Athletic Club football team won a second game! And the "Old Timers" have not stopped wondering yet. Since the Paleozoic era, the Sacites have been wont to organize with fanfare of trumpet (windmill) and much quaffing of the luna-shine; cluster around an iron-jawed battering ram, who starred on the Notre Dame varsity before the days of George Gipp, and march proudly out each September to take their annual slaughter. One game per season—for when the carnage ceases and the remains of all and sundry are carefully patched together by sympathetic surgeons, they disband.

But not this year. All the wind-broken "Old Timers" were kicked off the team when a parcel of "brainless kids" just out of Burns' clutches assumed charge. And those kids have actually succeeded.

October 10th they ran rough-shod over the Winchester A. C., and with the score 7 to 0 in favor of the Silents, Winchester pulled a "Sheridan's Ride" (you know the lines, "Winchester twenty miles away," and walked off the field, packed up their lip-sticks and powder-puffs, and amicably ambled home to mother.

The referee thereon awarded the game to the Sac by forfeit—2 to 0. All together, fellows, let's sing:

Clear on that cool October day,
Giving to Winchester deep dismay,
The sons of the Silent slashed and slammed
And battered and bawled and biffed and bammed
With a triple threat that meant bloodied nose,
And with hob-nailed boots that meant well-torn hose.
Oh, fervid and frantic the fiftful fray—
So Winchester—wrathful—walked away.

Quite a number of silents called on the J. Strives in Valparaiso, on the 26th, including the E. C. Weinrichs, of Maywood; Albert Handrocks, of Crystal Lake; and the Walter Michaelsons, Rev. Dahms, Wm. Pearce and Mrs. Alma Meyers, of Chicago.

The street display window of the Louis Helwig Co., 29 N. Wells, has a beautiful badge inscribed "Knights and Ladies of De l'Epee, Chicago Council No. 1."

It is said that the former Watts sisters—now Mesdames Richardson and Ronstadt, of Los Angeles, are spending a few months here.

The Advance was out on the first of October. Situated on a hill, and equipped with its own power plant, the State school linotype was the only Mergenthaler in town able to run during the severe flood there lately, and the two town newspapers used it to get out tabloid editions, while their own plants were taking a free bath. I met "Bad Bill" Camp, the editor, himself last June, and instead of finding him a fire-eating old ogre—who would rather scrap than eat (as his editorials denote), observed he was a likeable chap; in fact, almost human when not pounding his battered old typewriter. Moral: never judge a man by his literary output!

Three dozen helped the Roy Grimms celebrate their fifteenth wedding anniversary on the 9th, managed by Matt Heinz. Mrs. Laura Brasher and Mrs. Wm. Heagie won the "500" prizes.

The same evening, ten invited guests attended the good-bye party Clabourne F. Jackson gave at the home of Otto Lorenz, where he has been boarding since the N. A. D. convention. Hallowe'en decorations and addresses predominated, and a nice time was had. Jackson left the middle of October via New York and way-points to Miami, from where he sails to his home in Cuba, arriving around Christmas time.

Mrs. Constance Hasenstab Elmes has been ordained a DEACON! No; not a Deaconess, but a full-fledged Deacon—with authority to marry, baptize and conduct funeral services. She was the only woman in a class of fifteen ordained at the Rock River Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, October 3d. She has been helping her father in charge of the local M. E. flock, with loop quarters at 108 W. Lake St., for several years. Two additional years of study are required before Mrs. Elmes can take the examination for the degree of "Rev." The beloved M. E. pastor, who has for some 35 years been the outstanding figure in local silent religious circles, has long wanted a capable local assistant, and now that "his daughter is willing and qualified to succeed him, he doubtless feels much easier.

Francis P. Gibson departed on the 30th, for a few week's organization trip through the South. He was originally scheduled to install a division in Miami, Florida, during the trip, but since the hurricane devastated Miami, headquarters of our Silver Jubilee Society has been utterly unable to get into effective communication with its personnel down there. Grand Treasurer Roberts is most capably holding down the office while Gib is away.

One of those at the ball was Miss Florence Baker, who left Chicago four years ago. Miss Baker (worth half a million dollars in her own right, I hear) now resides with her mother in Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, a few doors from the Rev. Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson—who has for weeks been on the front page of every newspaper in the land. Miss Baker was annoyed by police and detectives, who fancied the missing pastor might have been hiding in the Baker home, so she left California for a few weeks until the furore blows over. She is also recovering from a severe fall recently.

Mrs. Ben Ursin reached Chicago on the 2d, after vainly trying to dispose of her Minnesota property at a good profit, leaving in it in the hands of a realtor.

Miss Lottie Wilson, of Belleville—near St. Louis—spent two weeks here, the guest, in turn, of the Tom Grays, Charles Sharpnacks and the Meaghers. October first, she was guest of honor at a party given by Mrs. Meagher, three tables of "500" being played.

Fred Tell, aged 18, a big, blonde oralist, won a scholarship at Armour Institute for his good work in Parker H. St. (Yes; I know he is an oralist, but give credit where credit is due. We manualists and signers are not the only pebbles on the beach, beloved!)

Nine tables of bunco and "500" featured the monthly social at the Chicago Hebrew League on the 19th. Their next affair is set for Sunday, October 17th, at Burns' Hall, 3958 Madison St. Admission 25c.

Isaac Weisbaum is confined in the County Hospital.

Mrs. Morris Seltzer, of St. Louis, our former Ida Pitofsky, has a baby.

The Silent A. C. football team defeated the Igoes, 7 to 0, in Washington Park, October 3d.

Mrs. Johnnie Sullivan, of Aurora, spent the week-end with the George Schrivers.

Miss Alice Donohue is enlaving in the St. Joseph Hospital.

Frank Osonick, of Milwaukee, is here looking for work.

Charles Sharpnack will give a "show" at the M. E. loop headquarters, October 16th.

October 3d, Rev. Hasenstab baptized Henry Potter, infant son of the Crossetts.

The M. E. services, October 10th, were featured by an address by Dr. Mavetty, of the Methodist Board of Education, in charge of the Freedman's Aid Society (for negroes), who gave an interesting talk on "Love," interpreted by Mrs. Elmes.

Misses Grove and Jacoba sang hymns. Attendance around 100.

The father of Mrs. Otto Lorenz spent a week with her. He is an attorney in the country town of Foston, Minn.

Mrs. G. F. Flick left for Baltimore on the 4th, to attend the funeral of her mother. She returned on the 8th.

Miss Alice Donohue left St. Joseph's Hospital on the 12th, after being confined two weeks for an operation for gall bladder. A co-worker from her shop called, and learning Miss Alice was entirely dependent on herself, made a lovely sofa pillow, which she raffled off at her shop for 10 cents per chance, the $53 netted being given to Miss Alice. The 17 ladies at the weekly sewing bee at the Illinois Home for Aged Deaf chipped in an additional $6.50 on the 7th.

Mrs. George Dougherty managed a small chop suey luncheon at the Home on the 7th, after which the following officers of the Auxiliary were elected: Mrs. Gus Hyman, Chairman, and Mrs. J. Meagher, secretary-treasurer (their third term) and Mrs. Ben Frank, chairman of the annual Home Bazaar, to be held the Silent A. C., December 3d and 4th.

Warren Cox, a resident of the Home, announces he will do shoe repairing reasonably.

George Shriver goes hunting with hearing friends every week-end, somewhere down in the southern part of the state.

Ford's Detroit plant being closed for a few weeks, several of the lads have come to Chicago temporarily. One, Elmer Priestner, is endeavoring to locate here permanently again.

Mrs. Arthur Meehan is back, after several weeks visiting her mother in Columbus, Ohio.

Mike Dowling has tickets to the Wisconsin-Michigan game in Ann Arbor, November 6th, so he will miss the Silver Jubilee banquet. You won't miss it—if you are wise.

The Wm. O'Neils were last heard of in Rochester, N. Y.

L. Waters recently dropped in at the Pas-a-Pas Club, on his way home to sunny California.

Pat Hilliard, an old timer of long ago, dropped in on his former town lately, on an excursion from Louisville.

Dates ahead. October 30—Football game between Bowen H. S. and the Illinois School for the Deaf, Soldiers' Field. Evening: Reception to I. S. D. at the Sac. Hallowe'en party at the Pas. November 2—Last chance to get banquet tickets. Meeting of No. 1, Capitol bldg. 5—Card party at Hartman's, benefit of the Home. 6—25th anniversary banquet of No. 1, Auditorium Hotel, $2 per plate.

X. E. S. NOTES

A fairly good attendance at October's meeting of the Xavier Ephpheta Society. Father Egan expressed the hope there would be an increase in the attendance hereafter. Following this, he spoke on the benefits of frequent Communion—urging all to partake of the privilege every month, instead of once or twice a year.

A meeting of the regular organization was held later in the assembly room. President Fives presided. Treasurer Lamberson's report of more than fifteen hundred in the bank, with a reserve in hand to meet exigencies, was cheering. Julius Kieckers, August Bernhardt and Joseph Edwin were appointed a committee to arrange a November entertainment. Since then they have met, and the function is to be a "Chinatown Revel." Use of the Xavier School Hall has been extended for the purpose, and the date is Saturday, November 27th.

Election of officers will be the business in hand at the first meeting in November. Indications point to a lively session. Nominations will precede the election, and though a few dark horses are in the running, the full quota of candidates remain a deep secret.

HEBREW ASSOCIATION

The Hebrew Association of the Deaf is now going on in full swing in its activities, and every affair larger attendance than previous ones.

The Association is now located in Room 403, at 177 West 46th Street, in the heart of the theatrical district, and is convenient to all members, and can be reached by all subways.

Its meetings are being attended by a full house, and at the Friday evening services, the attendance is increasing tremendously. A different speaker is on the platform every Friday evening.

Rev. John H. Kent, of St. Ann's Church gave a lecture to the members on Sunday evening, and the room was filled to its capacity.

A Hallowe'en Mardi Gras Party will be held at the Association rooms on Saturday, October 23d, at 8 P. M., and a grand time is assured to all those who attend.

DEAF-MUTES' UNION LEAGUE

After the regular monthly business meeting of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League, held on Thursday evening, October 14th, nominations for officers for 1927 took place, with the following result:

For President—Allan Hitchcock vs. Marcus L. Kenner.

For First Vice-President—Jack Ebbin vs. Benjamin Mintz.

For Second Vice-President—Abraham Miller vs. John N. Funk.

For Secretary—Nathan Schwartz vs. Anthony Capelle.

For Treasurer—Samuel Lowenherz.

Mr. Max Miller, the present incumbent, who has served so admirably the past two years, before selecting the inspector and tellers to conduct the nomination, stated that owing to unsatisfactory health, he begged not to be put up for any office, otherwise he would have been nominated for the third term.

The election will be held on the second Thursday in December, and on that night, three members of the Board of Governors will also be elected.

The attendance at this meeting broke all previous records, it filled the large meeting room to the doors.

We all know about the night watchman, who came back to the factory to chat with his substitute on his day off, and the postman who took a long walk on his holiday. Columbus Day being a legal holiday city printing offices were closed. May be it was the balmy Indian summer air tempting them to take a walk or the unconquerable desire for the smell of printers' ink, for the JOURNAL office was honored with a visit on the 12th, by Mr. Peter Mitchell, one time star of the Currier Harriers and all-around athlete. Peter graduated some 38 years ago; and while his rotund Pickwickian form prevents any more athletic feats, Pete went and became a star printer instead, and is holding down a steady job against all comers. A little while later, up bobs Alfred Stern, another star on the athletic field of Fanwood some twenty-three years ago. He, too, has made good in the printing field, and is one of the best all-around compositors in the city. What went on in their minds about bygone days, as they looked around at the JOURNAL office, one does not attempt to fathom; but one can be sure Editor Hodgson was glad to meet two of his old boys and was well proud of their success in life.

Two young deaf ladies stopped at the corner of Valentine Avenue and 188th Street, on a sunny afternoon recently. The red signal of the Traffic Squad warned them. Manipulating the "Stop" and "Go," sign was a trim built, good looking Man in Blue. Noting the "Movie" seance in animated gesture of the party at the curb, he smiled. Then with Chesterfieldian courtesy, proffered his services as escort over the roadway. One of the party remarked on the attentions of the cop. The other added to the duet with a sign that indicated "Fresh!"

By this time the trio had reached the opposite curb, and Roland Bothner, like one to the manner born, raised his gloved hands and signed, "You're right!" Then tipping his cap, the hard-worked Traffic Cop, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bothner, returned to his post.

Met Mr. Crutcher in the JOURNAL sanctum, where we dropped in for a visit last Friday. He is the only man who ever publicly apologized to Mr. Alex L. Pach. He never attended a school for the deaf. Took a post-graduate course at the New Jersey school, learning to operate a linotype. Understands printing. Has worked on a weekly paper, doing almost anything and everything pertaining to getting up such paper. Has his mind's eye now on a big thing New Jersey way, and if he is able to land the job, he assured the writer that he won't have to worry any more about the future. Here's hoping that he lands it. His stay was short as he was to meet a young lady, whom he knew when she was a little girl in Los Angeles, now taking a post graduate course at Columbia College.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Donovan, of Richmond Hill, N. Y., spent their vacation visiting various places of interest, including the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia, Pa., and attending the N. A. D. Convention in Washington, stopping with Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee Boswell. The latter extended an invitation to them to come to New York and pay them a visit. That was several weeks ago. Being greatly charmed with the visit and the wonderful change in New York, Mrs. Boswell is still enjoying her prolonged visit. But Mr. Boswell had to return to duty in Washington. Mrs. Boswell is being entertained to luncheons, etc., every day, going somewhere with Mrs. Donovan, and is delighted with motor trips. Her visit is expected to last several weeks longer.

On Sunday afternoon, October 17th, Dr. Barnett Elzas joined in holy bonds of matrimony, Mr. Benjamin Brandelstein and Miss Gertrude Lefkowitz. The ceremony took place at "The Ellsmere," 126th Street, near Lenox Avenue, where over one hundred relatives and friends were present. After the ceremony, a fine repast was partaken of. The newly married couple were toasted and best wishes extended to them by all.

The bride is a graduate of the Fanwood School, and since graduating has been seen much among the younger set, of which she is popular. The groom was educated at the Lexington Avenue School, and he, too, numbers many friends among the silent class. He is a member of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League and the Hebrew Association of the Deaf.

There is a moving-picture show billed at the Rio Theatre, Broadway and 160th Street, for October twentieth to twenty-third, the title of which is "You'd Be Surprised." Of special interest to the deaf about it, is the fact that Granville Redmond, the silent artist actor, of California, has a very prominent part in it, and for quite a good length of the film, there is carried on a conversation in the manna alphabet. This is the first instance it has been used so extensively in a movie, and will be enjoyed by those who go to see it.

The Brooklyn Guild's Hallowe'en Barn Dance will be given at St. Mark's Hall, at 230 Adelphi Street, Saturday evening, October 30th. Prizes will be awarded for the funniest farm costume. Plenty of fun to be had. Honey-moon and peanut races will be played. Miss Elizabeth Anderson is Chairlady, and the committee promises a delightful time for young and old. The proceeds are for the preparatory expenses of the coming Fair. Admission, 35 cents.

DETROIT.

Remember the Hallowe'en dance by the N. F. S. D. Saturday October 30th, G. A. R. Hall. Prize masquerade Ball, Saturday evening, November 13th., J. O. O. F. Riverside Temple.

October 23th, last social at D. A. D. Hall, at present location.

Ivan Heymanson is sure having his share of troubles. The New York specialist treatment seemed to make his face worse and he has gone to Ann Arbor to see the great doctors. They do great miracles there.

John Polk is now home and much improved in health. Thanks to the Ann Arbor doctors. We hope he continues on the road to good health.

John Peasche Jr., of Fordson City, who claims Trenton, N. J., as his home town, did a little hiking and a little riding on his vacation. He went from Milwaukee to Chicago, made a stop there and called at S. A. C. into St. Louis, and then back to Detroit in five days, three hours. Motorists were fine in giving him rides.

Miss Grace Partzman, of Columbus, Ohio, and her parents have taken up residence in Detroit. Grace has joined the D. A. D., and is looking for a position.

Joe Pastori, T. Herring and Max Crittenden, have joined a hearing Bowling League in Fenkell Ave. They promise to roll some high scores when spring comes.

L. D. Brown and wife, the former, who is acting as teacher and chauffeur for A. Seiss, of Pontiac, were recent callers at the D. A. D. Veral Smith, of Toledo, is job hunting here. To those who are planning on coming beware, there are millions of men out of work here just now. Dodges alone laid off over a thousand in the past week. Too long a tale to tell all.

Leo Goldstick, secretary of D. A. D. and former president of the Oral Club that recently fell through for various reasons, has already induced fifteen of its members to join the D. A. D. and learn the signs. We wish there were more like him.

The Hard of Hearing League have a big Banquet on Saturday, October 9th. Mrs. B. C. Bowen, president of the Toledo League and Mayor Smith are to be some of the speakers.

The infant son of Ivan Tenney, son of Mrs. Pearl Gatton, passed to the great beyond after just a short stay in this world.

Miss Violet Colby has been entertaining her sister, Ruth, and family of Washington, D. C.

The regular business meeting of the N. A. D. was called to order, September 25th, by President Heymanson, after the usual order of business, time was given over to discussion of ways and means for Deaf drivers. It seems that several hearing fellows got before a certain judge in Detroit, one was hard of hearing, the other stone deaf. They got off easy and judge was disgusted, so wrote to Mr. Deland, of Lansing, concerning the deaf drivers. Mrs. Grace Davis was appointed field worker for the N. A. D. and had some cards printed with the title.

The third girl, who answers to Myrtle Margaret, came to stay with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shaffer, of Springfield, Illinois. They are former resident of our city.

Otto Egger, who is working in a tailor shop in Arm Arbor, was a recent visitor in Flint and Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hellers and children, Mrs. Chas. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Behrendt, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. A. Scott, of Halway, Mrs. John Berry, of Royal Oak, and Mr. and Mrs. John Curry, of Toledo, went to Bay City on the 25th. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ash, of East Tawas. Mr. and Mrs. Flag Neal, of Akron, Gattu Bierri, of Saginaw, and Messrs. and Mesdames Brosseau, Sundquist Lawrence, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Lynch, of Essexville, and gave Miss Anna Rechlin a surprise shower.

The out-of-town crowd was a complete surprise. Some very pretty girls and useful gifts were left to remind the bride to be of the good time. Miss Rechlin will be married to Mr. H. Dundas, a barber in Saginaw in November.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Graves, of Cleveland, drove up to Detroit in their Buick Coupe and were guest of Mr. and Mrs. Aloys Japes in Devonshire Ave. They declared on leaving, Detroit the best town they had ever seen.

The Ladies' Guild of St. John's Church opened their fall activities with a social October 1st. The rain kept the ground down. Those who got there reported a good time.

The Beaver Brothers' brother in Miami house, escaped with minor damages. Mrs. Pacton's brother's family luckily escaped also.

Mr. Japes motored to California in company with Mr. Fischer. He intends to remain there until spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Leach, Mrs. E. Mott and Miss Florence Isham, of Flint, spent the week end in Detroit as the guest of Miss Dorothy Douglas and other friends.

MRS. WM. BEHRENDT.

SEATTLE.

At the monthly business meeting of the P. S. A. D., last Saturday evening, Jack Bertram introduced a motion to incorporate the association so as to put it on a proper business basis. This motion was unanimously carried. The committee having the matter in charge are Mr. Wright, Chairman; Dr. Hanson, Secretary; Messrs. Root and Partridge, and Mrs. Bertram. The association already owns several hundred dollars worth of good interest bearing bonds, a suit-case in which to store association papers and old record books, a box full of tin cups and spoons, and a committee is now about to purchase a large coffee pot. With such wealth we should certainly be incorporated.

Robert C. Miller recently spent a week-end in Wenatchee, going there with Lawrence Belser in his car. They saw Lawrence's mother and took dinner with her, and Mr. Miller had his first sight of the greatest apple orchards of the world. He was enthusiastic over the beautiful valley in its setting of high mountains, the orderly rows of trees, and the large and beautiful fruit. The apples were being picked and packed in boxes while he was there.

Mrs. John Brinkman suffered a couple of mashed fingers while trying to master the intricacies of a machine at the Portograph Manufacturing Company and the finger-nails will come off. When her hand is well she will again tackle the machine. Hitherto her work has been pasting stencils and she is also a department manager, having charge of supplies in her department. John, who was born with a love of out-doors, is packing apples at Wenatchee and is expected home at the close of the season.

A. K. Waugh's right arm is almost its normal size again, after his very bad attack of blood poisoning, and his friends are all mighty glad the arm was saved. But he cannot yet do any heavy work. Mrs. Waugh is selling off her chickens, finding the cost of feed too high.

Walter McConnell recently bagged a deer in Mason County, and shared his catch with his friends. The Hansons were among the lucky ones to enjoy some succulent venison steak.

Mrs. John Burgett has left Michigan for the west, and we expect her home this month. She is making a couple of visits enroute.

Edna Smith is having an attack of eczema, and is taking regular treatments. The trouble settled in one of her fingers.

Joe Kirshbaum recently bought a small tract of land outside the city limits towards the north. Seattle is rapidly growing in that direction.

Miss Bertha Stowe engineered a birthday party for Mrs. Bert Haire, the evening of September 25th, and a good crowd attended. Mrs. Haire was presented with some silver flat ware.

Marion and Alice Hanson are now at home, and are both looking very well, and full of enthusiasm over their wonderful trip home through the Panama Canal. In length and some other features it surpassed a trip to Europe. After leaving Balboa, on the Pacific side just out of the canal, the ship travelled eight whole days before she made a stop, much of the time entirely out of sight of land. The girls saw beautiful Miami just before it was hit by the great storm, and their ship just escaped being in. Alice is now back at the University of Washington beginning a post-graduate course. Marion will be married on October 16th, to Mr. James Lester Martin, of Oakland, Cal.

Mr. Ray Cummings, and Vester C. Monger reached Seattle October 1st, in the latter's car; from Denver. Col. They went on to Tacoma, and may stay there if they can secure good and steady work. Mr. Cummings attended the Frat meeting Saturday, October 2d.
